

AT SPRINGFIELD

The President at Capital City—Receives Great Ovation—Addresses and Dedicates—Exercises.

Springfield, June 4.—Springfield was in gala attire Thursday and extended a cordial welcome to the nation's chief. Flags and pictures of President Roosevelt were everywhere in evidence and the business section and along the line of march were gaily bedecked. The fifth regiment, I. N. G., which acted as an escort, arrived over the various roads early in the morning and a troop of cavalry were also present to add to the military spectacle. The columns of the governor's staff were on hand dressed in their new uniforms, which are now patterned after the uniforms worn by officers of the same rank in the regular army, and their gilt breastplates, the latter after the German standard, gave them a most striking appearance.

The crowd of visitors on the streets was not large, doubtless owing to the many stops the presidential party has made in the central part of the state. The president's train arrived promptly on time and he was escorted by the military and citizens' reception committee along the line of march through the square past the Leland hotel, then north to the capitol and east past the new arsenal to Lincoln's tomb, where short exercises were held.

The president received quite an ovation as he passed the assembled crowds and to all he bowed graciously. Governor Yates and Senators Cullom and Hopkins rode in the carriage with the president and surrounding the carriage on foot were the secret service men clad in the uniform of footmen.

The president reached the arena at 11:15, accompanied by Governor Yates, Senators Cullom and Hopkins, Senator J. Beveridge of Indiana, Secretary Loom and the secret service men. As he stepped upon the speakers' platform he was warmly greeted, the immense audience of 10,000 persons rising and cheering loudly.

Secretary State Rose stepped forward to order, and in a short speech introduced Governor Yates as chairman. He made a five-minute address.

Senator Cullom was then introduced and received an ovation. He presented the president with words of welcome, saying he was proud of the honor of introducing the president to this city.

Improved Conditions in the Flooded Area.

Mississippi River Now a Source of Menace to Life and Property—The Sea Level in Danger.

AT KANSAS CITY.

Kansas City, June 4.—The Missouri and Kaw rivers are receding at a much faster rate than at first, although the water about the lowest point, the highest point in the flooded district, is still four feet above the first floors. At Convention hall, where several hundred refugees have been housed since Sunday, sanitary conditions are being improved.

THE HAVEN LEVEE.

Burlington, Iowa, June 4.—By the breaking of the Haven levee south of Warsaw, Ill., the lowlands through which the Burlington river have been flooded and train service is stopped. The only means of getting to St. Louis from here is via Galena, Ill. Residents in the bottom north of Burlington are fleeing to Oquawka, Ill., in boats to find refuge.

AT ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, Mo., June 4.—This morning the Mississippi river is running over the sea level, which protects 100,000 acres of farm land in Illinois, in tiny rivulets. Back of the levee 500 people live, and if the large force of men now at work on the levee is not successful in stemming the overflow there is to be a loss of life.

AT TOPEKA.

ELECTRIC LINE.

Work on Jacksonville-Springfield Road May Commence This Summer.

Regarding the interurban electric road between this city and Springfield, articles of incorporation for which have already been taken out, one of the incorporators, a prominent citizen of Sangamon county, said Thursday that the details of the project were rapidly being mapped out and that it was the intention of the incorporators to build half of the road between the two cities.

Several years ago Jacksonville merchants enjoyed a large trade in the Jacksonville and Springfield area. The merchants of Jacksonville, however, have been driven out of the city by the influx of people from Springfield.

THE POSTAL INQUIRY.

A. W. Machen Before the Grand Jury—May Be Indicted—Re-arrangement of Rural Routes Probable.

Washington, June 4.—The case of A. W. Machen, former chief superintendent of the post office department, was before the grand jury today. A number of witnesses were examined and the jury adjourned until tomorrow. It was stated at the post office department today that if the grand jury returns a verdict against Machen the preliminary hearing scheduled for Saturday will not be held.

APPALLING MASSACRE.

Slaughter of People of a Village in European Turkey by Bashi-Bazouks.

Monastir, European Turkey, June 3.—A postmaster charged with the slaughter of inhabitants of the village of Smerdash, south of Lake Prespa, May 21, by bashi-bazouks. It appears that on arrival of bashi-bazouks at Chikank, a village in the mountains without sustaining any loss. As no rebels were left in the village, the inhabitants experienced no anxiety until suddenly, at sunset, the Turks had come to the village and the place was completely regular.

ing, May 29, seven and a half inches of water fell. Though there was no stream in the neighborhood, water was up to the axles of vehicles where the ground was at all low, and things generally were flooded. It looks rather good here some times, but we get disconcerted let us think of the people in the west.

The Daily Journal

FRIDAY, JUNE 5, 1903.

Rev. G. E. Springer spent Wednesday in Litterberg, the guest of Rev. D. W. Madden.

Alex Sears, of Peoria, came to Jacksonville last night from Kankakee, Iowa, and will spend to day at business.

John A. Ayers, Lee Albright, E. E. Bevington, Will Babb and S. D. Osborne attended the Litterberg horse show Thursday.

Arthur Scott arrived in the city yesterday morning from Denver, Colo., to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Scott.

WOUNDS FROM SHOT GUN

Edward Cox of Alexander receives Painful Wounds—Weapon Accidentally Discharged.

Ed Cox, living near Alexander, was seriously injured by the accidental discharge of a shotgun while out hunting Wednesday. He was shot in the chest, the bullet entering his right breast and exiting his left breast. The wound is very painful and it will be some time before Mr. Cox will be able to get about.

IMPORTANT TRANSFER

A. C. Babenhansen Disposes of Crescent Hotel and Star Lunch Room.

The announcement will come as a surprise to most people that A. C. Babenhansen yesterday sold the Crescent Hotel and Star Lunch Room to Mr. Land. The transfer includes the Crescent, the Star and the new West State street saloon property and possession has already been given. The money involved has not been made public, but it is understood that Mr. Babenhansen takes some land in part payment.

Mr. Land will simply retain the ownership of the property until he can dispose of it to advantage as a whole or separately. He is a member of the Cunn & Land real estate firm of Ft. Scott, Kans., and has engineered a number of important deals in this county. It was Mr. Land who sold Messrs. Smith & Simpson their present holdings. The new proprietor of the Crescent and the Star has placed them under the management of Earl M. Henderson. The plans of Mr. Babenhansen have not been made public.

were: C. W. Fisher, mules; C. W. Conover, saddle horses; Edgar Forbes, pole team; John Hunter, peeing horses; Frank Virgin, yearling trotter; A. D. Arnold, two-year-olds; and Ed McHenry, exhibitor. Their decisions in each case met with approval and they tied the prize ribbons in the right places.

The last event was finished in a drizzling rain, which increased to a heavy shower during the supper hour. The musicians, under the direction of Director C. C. Jeffries, furnished an excellent musical program during the afternoon and also played several selections at the supper tent.

After the horse show the people made a general rush to the supper tent, where the Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church were only anxiously waiting for them to be working most of the day in making ready the preparations for their annual supper, which is always given at the time of the horse show. While the membership of this little band numbers only eleven, they are an industrious set and they never grow weary, for they entertained the two or three hundred guests in a most cheerful manner and the welcome was only exceeded by the generous provision of good things, which they handed out with a lavish hand. They were assisted by other members of the church and congregation.

The present officers of this flourishing organization are: President, Mrs. E. A. Cooper; vice president, Mrs. L. Jordan; secretary, Mrs. Albert Crum; treasurer, Mrs. John Litter. Those who assisted with the supper last night were: In charge of cooking, Mrs. Aaron Taylor, Mrs. D. Litter and Mrs. Myers; ticket sellers, A. Petefish and W. Litter; ushers, Wm. Crum and E. E. Murray; ice cream, Harry Martin and Sam Fitzpatrick.

Table No. 1—Mrs. John Litter in charge; J. Westrop, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ogde and Miss May Myers, assistants.

Table No. 2—Mrs. Albert Crum in charge, with Mrs. Bartholomew, Charles Young, Miss Myrtle Deaton and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Smith, assistants.

Table No. 3—Mrs. M. Crum and Mrs. Jordan, with Misses Laura Petefish, Elsie McHenry and Mrs. Elta McHenry, assistants.

Table No. 4—Mrs. L. A. Cooper, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Litter, Misses Hattie Norman, Laura Bateman and Will Norman.
